Come join friends and family for a festive celebration of

HumanLight

the secular winter holiday, celebrating human values of reason, compassion, humanity and hope

Sponsored by The NJ Humanist Network -- our 11th annual holiday celebration!

HumanLight is a secular winter holiday, celebrated around the country since 2001. The holiday celebrates and expresses humanist ideals and values: a positive vision of a peaceful, ethical, enlightened and happy world, which humanity can build by working together, without relying on supernatural religious beliefs.
