

HumanLight

by Sonny Meadows ©

HumanLight, O shine so bright
Lead us through these darkest nights
Beyond belief to what is known
HumanLight, O guide us home

And the tree of knowledge shall forever bloom
Bearing the fruits of wisdom and truth
While superstition withers on the vine

HumanLight, O shine so bright
Lead us through these darkest nights
Beyond belief to what is known
HumanLight, O guide us home

And I lift my child up towards the sky
And the HumanLight glistens in her eyes
And the flow of reason shows the road of hope

HumanLight, O shine so bright
Lead us through these darkest nights
Beyond belief to what is known
HumanLight, O guide us home

I see, I hear, I touch, and I learn
O understanding, like a passion it burns
As freethought kindles the flame

Guide us on...
Guide us on...
Guide us on...
Guide us on.
